

The Susan Hogeland, CAE Health Policy Fellowship Application

Key Dates, Application Process:

Applications open: September 15, 2019
Applications close: December 1, 2019
Awards announced: January 4, 2020

The $3,500 stipend for this Fellowship will be paid to the student and resident fellow on a per event basis, as either a reimbursement or a pre-paid travel/registration. Details will be finalized with successful candidates.

Applications for this scholarship consist of the following items, submitted to Shelly Rodrigues, CAE, no later than December 1, 2019.

Applications for this scholarship consist of the following items, submitted in a Word or PDF document:

1. Cover sheet
 - Applicant's name
 - Applicant's preferred mailing address
 - Applicant's email
2. One-page essay discussing:
 - Why the applicant wishes to participate in the Fellowship program
 - How the Fellowship will fill a gap in applicant's training or experience
 - Goals or plans to use the newly acquired knowledge or skills in his or her practice or community
3. Applicant's current curriculum vitae (10 pages or fewer, please) and electronic photo
4. One letter of support from an active CAFP member
5. One letter of support from the candidate's medical school or residency program, acknowledging the time the Fellowship will take allocate to complete the program.

For more information, please contact Shelly Rodrigues, CAE, 415-345-8668 or srodrigues@familydocs.org