

1/16/2021

www.familydocs.org/fmforum

2020 FAMILY MEDICINE Virtual CLINICAL FORUM

| | |
|----------------------|--|
| 7-8:00 AM | Exhibits to Review |
| 8:00-8:15 AM | Plenary/Opening - Let's start the day off right!" - Christopher Flores, MD and Carol Havens, MD, Forum Co-chairs, and David Bazzo, MD, CAFP President |
| 8:15 - 9:15 AM | Coronavirus Vaccine Update and Q&A - Jeffrey Luther, MD Dr. Luther is representing CAFP on the state's Community Vaccine Advisory Committee, the charge of which is to "provide input and feedback for the ongoing planning efforts to ensure equitable (COVID-19) vaccine allocation, distribution and administration" in California. He will also provide tips for addressing vaccine hesitancy. |
| Switch Session Break | |
| 9:25-10:10 AM | Family Physicians as leaders in the public health movement to raise vaccination rates - AAFP Social Media Ambassadors - Alex McDonald, MD; Kim Yu, MD |
| 10:10 - 10:50 AM | Family Medicine Update and Q& A - Hobart Lee, MD |
| 10:50-11:10 AM | Optional engagement opportunities Last Chance to Visit the Exhibit Hall Jam with #DocsWhoRock Take a Breather: A Mindful Stress Reduction Routine - Dr. Greg Sazima |
| 11:10-11:40 AM | Practical Advice to Address Racism in Medicine - Monica Hahn, MD and Stephen Richmond, MD |
| 11:40-12:20 PM | Keynote: Moving the 2020 Family Medicine Clinical Forum Upstream - Rishi Manchanda, MD, MPH As the case for moving healthcare upstream and advancing health equity gets stronger, health professionals and systems lack the skills and support to drive this upstream transformation. In the keynote session, Dr. Rishi Manchanda will describe what it means to move upstream, define the core competencies and practical skills healthcare professionals need, and define concrete steps that clinics and health systems can take to help improve the social and structural drivers of health equity for patients, communities and society. |
| 12:20 - 12:30 PM | Plenary/Key Points |
| 12:30 PM | Family Medicine Clinical Forum ends - see you in 2022! |